

CATIA CESARI

Catia Cesari graduated in Economy and Management at University of Florence.

Thanks to her professional background, built within large multinational corporates both in Italy and abroad, she has developed a rock-solid expertise and focus in origination and execution of mergers and acquisitions, change management and sustainability.

She currently serves as Operating Partner in Tau Investments, an investment fund based in New York, Hong Kong and Geneva investing in the sustainable value chain of the fashion and garment industry.

Previously, she covered leading roles in GE, GE Energy, Gucci, JAB Holding and in top-tier private equity funds.

At the moment, furthermore, Catia Cesari is serving as Independent Member of the Board of Directors and Chairman of the Remunerations and Appointments' Committee in Piquadro S.p.A.

June 2019