

MARINO MARIN

Mr. Marin received his degree in Economics from Bocconi University and a diploma in Business Administration from ESADE University of Barcelona.

He began his career at Mediobanca in the financial services department and worked for over twenty-five years in investment banking and principal investments.

He assisted on numerous corporate and international M&A transactions.

He worked at UBS Warburg, Lehman Brothers, Rothschild and Lane Berry Inc. as managing director in the United States.

Mr. Marin was responsible for the establishing the M&A department of UniCredit Banca Mobiliare S.p.A. in Italy.

Mr. Marin is the founder and current CEO of MC Square, a global co-investment platform based in the United States.

He also served as CEO and general manager of 1055 Partners LLC and managing director of Gruppo Silverfern, Inc., a U.S. co-investment platform.

He currently serves as director of Storti S.p.A. and Morrow Sodali Global LLC.