

GIANCARLO NICOSANTI MONTERASTELLI

Giancarlo Nicosanti Monterastelli has built his entire career at Unieuro S.p.A., of which he has been Chief Executive Officer since 2005.

After earning a diploma in accountancy, in 1982 he joined the company, which at the time was called SGM Distribuzione S.r.l., as administration staff in charge of distribution and retail sales of electric household appliances and consumer electronics.

In 1986, he moved to the commercial area working as Buyer and became the head of the department as Commercial Officer four years later.

In 2005, in conjunction with the entry of the private equity operator Rhône into the company's shareholding structure, Giancarlo Nicosanti Monterastelli was appointed Chief Executive Officer leading the company towards an intense expansion process, which resulted in the acquisition of the former UniEuro (2013) and was crowned by the company being listed in the STAR segment of the Italian Stock Exchange in April 2017.

February 2020